Show & Tell, bring a horological item to show

Our second auction went very well during the March meeting. This is the first time we opened up the bidding to the public. I would like to thank Mike Paul for running another successful auction. 161 items were sold from 17 different sellers, over 3 times the numbers we had in 2010. We had 77 attendees purchase a paddle this year; twice the number we had in 2010. The auction rules allowed the owner to bid on his own items, but over 75% of the items went home to a new owner. Thank you to all members for bringing items to sell, bidding and helping with running the auction.

Lots included a Gustav Becker mantle chime clock, nearly a dozen Vienna regulators, and a pair of barometers.

Winning bids ranged from $2 to over $500, providing buying opportunities for a broad range of budgets.
